Hispanic Ministry

The Nebraska District supports ministry to the Hispanic population in Nebraska in:

- Columbus
- Grand Island
- Omaha
- Lincoln
- South Sioux City

Familia en Cristo, Columbus (project #16-008)

The Columbus Lutheran Hispanic Ministry (CLHM) is a ministry of three LCMS congregations in Columbus, in cooperation with the Nebraska District of the LCMS, whose purpose is to connect the Hispanic community to Christ. This ministry is committed to serving the Hispanic community through meaningful relationships and helpful resources.

Lutheran Hispanic Ministry, Lincoln

(project #16-005)

The Lincoln congregations of Christ, Immanuel, and Trinity partner together to support Rev. Santi Keinbaum as a missionary to the Hispanic community in Lincoln. This ministry offers English classes and Bible studies as a service to the community and as a way to build relationships that can lead to sharing the love of Christ.

Siouxland Hispanic Ministry, Sioux City/ South Sioux City (project #281-16-009)

The Hispanic population in the Sioux City area is hearing the Good News of Jesus through a partnership of Hope, South Sioux City and Sioux City, Iowa congregations. Through English classes and acts of mercy, these congregations are showing the love of God to their neighbors.

Cristo Cordero de Dios, Grand Island

(project #281-16-006)

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is shared with the Hispanic community in Grand Island through the work of Pastor Salvador Ferrero and the members of Cristo Cordero de Dios. The members of this LCMS congregation are working to connect with those around them through English Language Learner and children’s classes. This congregation is also partnering with other LCMS churches in Grand Island to engage the Hispanic population around them.

Peace International Friendship Center, Omaha (project #272-200)

The Lord provided Carlos Mestayer to serve and minister to the Hispanic population making use of the services and activities at the Peace International Friendship Center. Current mercy ministry cares for physical needs, and what a blessing it is having a worker who can speak Spanish and build relationships with this community to be able to share the saving message of Jesus and plant the seeds of faith.
